

HELL HOUNDS

Demon Dogs and Hounds of Hell
To treat them right will do you well
Succumb to fear and live in fright
Feed the beasts that live at night

Underworld creatures come out for the kill
Dragging you in so you can dine on the spill
Nefarious creatures with perilous plans
Laugh in your face as it's shaking your hand

Hell Hounds
All Around
Laugh in your face
Destroy your fate

A band of villains, who were all women
Summoned a creature to rise
Crucified women in need of revenge
Plotting their victims' demise

Soon after chanting had turned into ranting
A hideous Creature arrived!
Suicide Women tormenting their men
Lie with the creature and carry its sin

Once the hound is on the trail
It finds a scent, although it's stale
The Demon feeds and finds them suitable
Now the old hags all look beautiful

To feed on man and lick its wounds
In their wombs grows untold tombs
To birth a Demon, out of treason
Feeds on mother, for good reason
